

On December 19, 2017 Gordon Stobbe received a package in the mail from Rideau Hall, the Chancellery of Honours.

“Please accept my heartfelt congratulations on having been appointed a Member of the Order of Canada by Her Excellency the Right Honourable Julie Payette, Governor General of Canada. The conferment of our country’s highest honour is a testament to your outstanding achievement, dedication to the community and service to the nation.”

Gordon is very humbled and honoured to be recognized for his decades of work as a musician, music educator and mentor from coast to coast to coast in Canada. He wishes to thank everyone who has been a part of this including all his musical colleagues and all those who have provided him with the opportunities to do what he loves. As a first generation Canadian, the son of immigrants, Gordon is very mindful of the good fortune that brought his parents to this country and of the incredible possibilities that this country holds for him and others who are willing to follow their passion.
