Gates open Monday July 23rd, and entertainment starts with the annual Thursday Evening Open Mic on the big stage, which will once again be featuring some special guests; Saturday's interactive workshops are for those looking to improve their instrument skills or just to watch a master instrumentalist at work close up; Saturday also features the Annual Youth Concert (a real treat you won't want to miss) and a Children's Program designed to introduce kids to the music (while giving parents an afternoon break). Parents then get to see their pride and joys playing/singing on the big stage! A non-denominational Church Service is available Sunday morning, followed by another day of wonderful Bluegrass and Oldtime music!

PLUS, a FREE BUS SERVICE around the festival grounds to help you enjoy as much of the festival as possible!

The festival also features on-site first-aid and security, indoor and portable toilets; indoor showers and a variety of on-site concessions including cafeteria service with indoor seating (and what some call the best fish and chips around!)

The annual family friendly Nova Scotia Bluegrass and Oldtime Music Festival is Canada's oldest and North America's second oldest continuously running Bluegrass Festival and is presented and hosted by the Downeast Bluegrass and Oldtime Music Society, a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation and promotion of Bluegrass and Oldtime music in Eastern Canada.

Hope to see you at the 47th Annual Nova Scotia Bluegrass and Oldtime Music Festival!
